Competition or if any racing or any other event applicable to the Competition is cancelled for any reason or any circumstances affecting a winner's ability to access or use their prize or for any reasons of Force Majeure.

"Event of Force Majeure" means:

a fire, flood, lightning, storm, earthquake or other similar geological or metrological event or condition or Act of God, national emergency, diseases, epidemic, pandemic, war, act of terrorism, riot or criminal act or damage, strike, lockout or other industrial action not involving the employees of the affected Party (to the extent such failure is beyond the reasonable control of the affected Party) or any other event beyond the control of a Party. The Parties acknowledge and agree that any disruption caused by the outbreak of coronavirus (COVID-19) or similar diseases (such as the temporary or permanent closure of the venues) shall constitute an Event of Force Majeure.

12. The entrant consents to the use of their name, voice, photographs and/or other likenesses for advertising or publicity purposes without additional compensation. Your personal information will be treated in accordance with the Privacy Policy accessible on www.doncaster-racecourse.co.uk. From time to time, Arena Racing Company may send you details of its products, services (and those of selected marketing partners) and/or Competitions. You can unsubscribe from this information service at any time.

13. Details of the prize are included in the information about the Competition.

14. All components of the prize must be taken together.

15. The prize winner and his/her prize companion must comply with the terms and conditions of the venues involved in the provision of the prize.

16. By entering the Competition, all participants will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by these terms and conditions and by any other requirements set out in the information about the Competition.

17. These terms and conditions shall be governed by English Law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
